

Central Texas Water Conservation Symposium

Future-Focused Water Conservation

PAST TO PRESENT: WHAT'S NEXT ON THE HORIZON?

Thursday, February 1, 2018 – Canyon View Event Center

4800 Spicewood Springs Road, Austin, TX 78759

PROGRAM

8:00 - 8:45	Registration & Continental Breakfast
8:45 - 9:00	Welcome
9:00 - 10:00	Keynote - The Present and Future of Residential Water Efficiency Ron Voglewede, Global Sustainability Director, Whirlpool Corporation
10:00 - 10:30	State Legislative Changes Affecting Water Conservation John Sutton, Manager of Municipal & ICI Water Conservation Programs, Texas Water Development Board
10:30 - 10:45	Break
10:45 - 11:45	Reducing Long-term Rate Impacts through Later Conservation and Lessons Learned from Water Conservation Program Design and Implementation Candice Rupprecht, Water Conservation Manager, Tucson Water
11:45 - 12:45	Lunch
12:45 - 1:30	We'll Know the Worth of Water When the Wells Stop Flowing: How the Great Artesian Depletion Taught Texas to Not Waste Water Robert Mace, Chief Water Policy Officer, The Meadows Center for Water & the Environment/Texas State University
1:30 - 2:15	PACE as an Innovative Financing Tool for Water Conservation Projects Jonathan Blackburn, Managing Director, Texas PACE Authority
2:15 - 3:00	What is Integrated Urban Water Management or "One Water" & What Can it do for Texas? Sarah Richards, Water Program Officer, The Cynthia & George Mitchell Foundation
3:00 - 3:15	Wrap-up and evaluations